In the first preparatory meeting, which may take place by teleconference, if not waived by the jury, after analysis and admission of applications, the jury begins to decide which applicants pass to next phase on absolute merit, drawing up an alphabetical list.

An application is rejected on absolute merit if at least one proposal to this effect receives a majority of votes from among the jury members present at the meeting.

The final decision on each proposal, as well as the number of votes received by each of them, and their grounds, are an integral part of the minutes.

XII— Criteria for the selection and seriation of the candidates:

1 — The criteria for the selection and seriation of the candidates take the following aspects of the performance of faculty staff into account:

- a) Teaching Activity: 35 % of the final classification of the candidate;
- b) Research Activity and knowledge valorisation: 35% of the final classification of the candidate;

c) Academic service activities and university management: 30% of the final classification of the candidate.

2 — In each of these criteria, it should be considered the following parameters:

a) Teaching Activity – Assessment in this component will take into account the following criteria and specific parameters:

- i) Responsibility and teaching of curricular units (50%);
- ii) Production of teaching material (15%);
- iii) Development of teaching laboratories (20%);
- iv) Report referred to in subparagraph i) of item III of this Public Notice (15%).

b) Research Activities and knowledge valorisation — Assessment in this component will take into account the following criteria and specific parameters:

- i) Scientific production conducted and published (30%);
- ii) Rendering of services to the economic and productive framework (20%);
- iii) Participation in research units (10%);
- iv) Supervision of Master's and Doctoral degree students (20%);

- iii) Classification obtained in the criteria: academic service activities and university management.

XIII — Final ordering of candidates — The jury will use the following voting method in order to obtain an absolute majority in the final ranking of candidates:

The first voting is intended to determine the candidate to be put in first place. If a candidate receives more than half of the votes of the members of the jury present at the meeting, he/she will be placed in first place. If the applicant in first place is not determined, the voting will be repeated, but only among the candidates who received enough votes to be considered for first place, once the applicant least voted in the first round is removed. If there is more than one candidate in the position of least voted there will be another voting with only these candidates in order to determine who is to be eliminated. If the tie persists in relation to the same set of candidates, the President of the jury will decide which candidate is to be eliminated. If at this point there continues to be a tie among two or more applicants, the president of the jury will decide which of them is to be eliminated. Once this elimination is made, the jury returns their attention to the first vote, but only with the remaining candidates. The process is repeated until one applicant receives more than half the votes for first place. The process is repeated for second place and so forth until an ordered list of all admitted candidates is complete.

This Public Notice was written and will be posted at the relevant places.
